

2nd Pioneer Seminar :

BREAKING BOUNDARIES in RESEARCH

NITOBE
SCHOOL
HOKKAIDO UNIVERSITY
Advanced Programme

Let's talk about: International Collaboration & Application of Research to Improve the Society

Date:
29th SEPTEMBER 2017
(Friday)

Time:
18:00-20:00

Venue:
HOKKAIDO UNIVERSITY MUSEUM
(Room S105)

Pre-registration: until Sept. 27
goo.gl/gwvLQn

For further inquiries, contact us through:
LINE: FACEBOOK:

Come and hear from professors about overseas education and research, making and maintaining global collaborations and prolific publishing, internationally.

18:05-18:35

Prof. Yasuhiko Suzuki

- Professor, Division of Bioresources Research Center for Zoonosis Control, Hokkaido University
- Director, Research Center for Zoonosis Control, Hokkaido University
- Chair, US-Japan Cooperative Medical Science Program , Japanese Mycobacteria Panel

----- 10 min Q&A -----

18:50-19:20

Prof. Susumu Imai

- Graduate School of Economics and Business, Hokkaido University
- Associate Editor, Journal of Applied Econometrics and Journal of International Economics
- Collaborator for Social Sciences and Humanities Research Council (SSHRC) grant (2008-2011)

----- 10 min Q&A -----

19:30-20:00 Panel Discussion

Questions will focus on how to:

- initiate and maintaining a good long term international collaborations,*
- acquire research funding,*
- publish in international journals*
- apply research results--- for policy making, disease surveillance improvement*